

ROLLING UP OUR SLEEVES

BUILDING AN OREGON
THAT WORKS
FOR WORKING FAMILIES

ROLLING UP OUR SLEEVES

BUILDING
AN OREGON
THAT WORKS
FOR WORKING FAMILIES

By Michael Leachman and Joy Margheim

THE STATE OF WORKING OREGON 2008-2009

December 2008

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The authors wish to thank Chuck Sheketoff and Juan Carlos Ordóñez for intensive editing. Thanks also to Juan Carlos for drafting the introduction and several of the introductory and concluding sections for chapters in the report. The authors also wish to thank Janet Bauer, Lee Mercer and Randi Embree for their thoughtful edits and for proofing. Special thanks also to Robb Vancil, OCPP's summer research assistant, who drafted early versions of some sections, gathered useful information and compiled sources. More special thanks to Brad Larsen and Chris Ramig, interns with OCPP during the spring and summer, who collected valuable information on issues discussed in the report. Thanks also to Michael Mazerov at the Center on Budget and Policy Priorities for reviewing a section of the report. Thanks to those who made data available and provided valuable assistance: Kai Fillion at the Economic Policy Institute, Maurice Emsellem and Andrew Stettner at the National Employment Law Project, Chris Allanach at the Legislative Revenue Office, Mark Greenberg at the Center for American Progress, Jodie Levin-Epstein at the Center for Law and Social Policy, Gary Burriss at the Economic Opportunity Institute and Brandon Sawyer at Oregon Business Magazine.

THE OREGON CENTER FOR PUBLIC POLICY WOULD LIKE TO THANK THE FOLLOWING FOR SPONSORING THIS REPORT:

THE OREGON CENTER FOR PUBLIC POLICY WOULD ALSO LIKE TO THANK THE FOLLOWING FOR THEIR ONGOING SUPPORT OF OUR WORK:

Economic Analysis and Research Network of the Economic Policy Institute
Ford Foundation
Governance and Public Policy Program of the Open Society Institute
Stoneman Family Foundation
Oregon Education Association
Oregon School Employees Association
Service Employees International Union (SEIU), Local 503
The generous support of many organizations and individuals

The Oregon Center for Public Policy's mission is to use research and analysis to advance policies and practices that improve the economic and social opportunities of all Oregonians.

The OCPP is part of the State Fiscal Analysis Initiative (SFAI) and the Economic Analysis and Research Network (EARN).

CONTENTS

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY v

INTRODUCTION 1

THE PROBLEM: FEW OREGONIANS HAVE SHARED IN THE BENEFITS OF ECONOMIC GROWTH 3

Oregon’s economy grew faster than the nation’s 3

Most Oregonians gained nothing or lost ground 4

- Incomes stagnated 5
- Official poverty was flat; real poverty was worse 5
 - Poverty is relative 6
- Health care coverage declined 6
- Bankruptcies soared 8
- Hunger declined, thanks to food stamps 8
- Service jobs grew; manufacturing jobs declined 9

The wealthiest Oregonians captured the gains 10

- Corporate profits skyrocketed 10
- Pay soared for CEOs 11
- Higher-paid workers took home all the gains 12
- Income inequality reached historic levels 12
 - Rising inequality is no myth 14

The growth period ends: Oregon falls into recession 16

- Job and housing markets decline 16
- Wages come under pressure 17

STRATEGY 1: STRENGTHEN THE PUBLIC SECTOR’S ROLE IN PROMOTING SHARED PROSPERITY 19

Invest in the public sector to benefit Oregonians today and in the future 19

- The public sector is a key player in the economy 19
- Maintaining public spending is vital during a recession 20
 - Top economists believe state spending cuts do more damage 22
- The public sector can help tighten a slack labor market 22
- The public sector lays the foundation for the future 24
- Reduce child poverty 24
- Improve the state’s infrastructure 25

Use public financing to increase workers’ bargaining power 25

- Unions raise wages for workers 26
- Union membership has declined 27
 - Unions have seen some recent success in Oregon 28
- Unions face unfair obstacles to organizing 28
 - The Employee Free Choice Act is key 29
- Enact a neutrality law 29
- Require living wages 30
- Enact “labor peace” ordinances 31

STRATEGY 2: IMPROVE THE STRUCTURES THAT PROVIDE ECONOMIC SECURITY 33

Assure quality health care for all Oregonians 33
 The current system does not work for low-wage workers. 33
 Oregonians with coverage face rising costs 35
 Enact universal, comprehensive and affordable coverage 35
 The winds of health care reform blow in Oregon 36
Modernize Oregon’s unemployment insurance system 37
 How the unemployment insurance system works 37
 The system excludes many who ought to qualify 38
 Oregon has the means to fix the system. 39
 Adopt an Alternate Base Period 39
 Eliminate barriers for part-time workers 40
 Eliminate the waiting week 41
 Adopt a dependent allowance 41
 Help low-income workers who seek job training 41
Enact family-friendly work supports 41
 Enact family leave insurance. 42
 Enact paid sick leave 43
Help shore up the retirement system for Oregonians. 44
 Social Security is sound but insufficient for retirement needs 45
 Pensions and savings are wobbly 45
 Defined contribution plans favor the well off 47
 Institute a system of universal voluntary retirement accounts 48

STRATEGY 3: BUILD A FAIRER, STRONGER TAX SYSTEM 49

Build a tax system based on ability to pay 49
 Expand the Oregon Earned Income Tax Credit 50
 Target our primary subsidy for homeownership better 51
 Add a new top bracket for the top eight-tenths of 1 percent 53
 Eliminate the costly and unfair federal income tax subtraction 53
Reverse the corporate and business tax shifts 54
 A shift has occurred in both income and property taxes 55
 Revenue has held steady, but who pays has shifted 57
 Reform the corporate income tax system to bring in appropriate revenues. 57
 Require public reporting to change the climate for reform 59
Ensure that economic development spending pays off 60
 Shine the light on economic development spending. 60
 Hold companies accountable for subsidy deals. 60
Save enough to weather economic downturns 61

ENDNOTES 63